

Author A.C. Frieden Visits Washington DC for Literary Research

WASHINGTON, D.C., USA (Nov. 11, 2007) – Author A.C. Frieden visited Washington, D.C., on this Veteran’s Day weekend to research scenes for two of his upcoming novels, The Serpent’s Game and Where Spies Go To Die, as well as to develop some freelance political articles. As part of his research, Frieden visited several key sites in and around Washington, D.C, and Arlington, Virginia, with the assistance of a good friend and fellow lawyer (a former federal government attorney). He also conducted some informal interviews with veterans attending the various ceremonies.
