

Author A.C. Frieden Researches Scenes in Amsterdam

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (Dec. 4, 2012) – Novelist A.C. Frieden arrived in the Dutch capital this week for work related to his legal practice as well as to research scenes for a new thriller. “I’ve been to Amsterdam several times, as early as in my late teens,” said Frieden. “There are countless parts of the city that can fit nicely as a setting for espionage scenes.” Most of his research was done in the evening, in three separate parts of the city.

(Above) Frieden in Dam Square, facing the former Amsterdam town hall. The square is located along the popular Damrak Boulevard, north of the central train station.

About the author: A.C. Frieden is an international author and lawyer based in Chicago. His works include the Jonathan Brooks series thrillers Tranquility Denied and the upcoming The Serpent's Game, as well as other fiction and non-fiction books. For more information, visit his website at www.acfrieden.com and his blogs.

All images copyrighted 2012 by A.C. Frieden. All rights reserved. No photo reproductions permitted without prior written consent. Nothing in this press release shall imply any endorsement, sponsorship or other support by or for any of the featured persons, products or enterprises.

To contact the author, visit his official website or send correspondence to:

Avendia Publishing
Media Relations Dept.
444 N. Michigan Ave., Suite 1200
Chicago, IL 60611
Email: media@avendiapublishing.com